The Gospel According to Matthew
by Barbara E. Reid, O.P

On the first Sunday of Advent we began the year of Matthew of our liturgical cycle (Year A). Recently while reflecting on a Sunday gospel a friend said that she wished she had taken an in-depth Scripture course so she could dig into the meaning of a certain image used by Matthew (who had borrowed it from Isaiah). Most of us have not taken such a course. We are not likely to, either. But there are resources readily available to us to help fill that gap.

One such resource is the New Collegeville Bible Commentary of which this book is one volume. The commentary is the work of St. John's Abbey's (Benedictine) Liturgical Press. This volume is 160 pages long. The Gospel According to Matthew provides Gospel text (New American Bible translation) along with Sister Barbara E. Reid's commentary, to aid in the interpretation and use of this Gospel today. As Reid demonstrates, this Gospel continues to bring vision and hope to Christians throughout the ages. Reid stresses the importance of the Gospel of Matthew as the first book in the New Testament, possibly the first written Gospel, and the one most often used in the early church. Providing both the text and commentary, Reid addresses important questions such as the author's identity and sources, setting and Gospel translation.

Barbara E. Reid, OP, PhD, is professor of New Testament at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. This book is available directly from the Liturgical Press (www.litpress.org) or from many on-line booksellers for around $7.
